Shall I remove the draft header and turn to a pdf then?

Hi Elizabeth,

Yes, Wiebke suggested making the font slightly smaller so the table does not look to cramped. I think it helps.

Hi, Amanda. The table of contents looks good – only it is in 11' font. The rest of the document is in 12' font. Is that intentional? I think it looks ok like that. What do you think?

Hi Elizabeth,

Let me know when you're ready to pdf or if you'd like to chat about the table of contents.

How's it going? Do you still want a table of contents in the R2C/where in the doc would you like it? Below RESPONSE TO COMMENTS

Hi Amanda. I was late finishing up the document this evening. I am wondering whether you could go in the document tomorrow and manually accept the changes one by one? I could just use the "accept all changes" button, but worry that could result in us losing something important. Especially as we have no time to really fix it. Thanks!
